

Addicted.com Offers Instant Support For Addicts Families

Addicted.com is a new website that offers resources for addicts and their families to find support and recovery resources online. The site features a panel of doctors and other professionals that specialize in the diagnosis and treatment of common addictions including: eating disorders, gambling, sexual addiction and drug and alcohol addiction.

Addicted.com offers people seeking help a Zip Code Locator which visitors can use to find nearby recovery centers, doctors, counselors and other assistance for their addictions.

Other features include AddictedTube, which allows visitors to view and share addiction-related videos. AddictedSpace \(http://www.addictedtube.com\) is another valuable feature where members can share progress on recovery, ask for help, and share stories of addiction and rehabilitation.

The innovative aspect of this website is its comprehensive content. Along with AddictedSpace and AddictedTube, visitors can take addiction self-tests (<http://www.addicted.com/selftests/>) to help determine whether they have an addiction and may need to seek help. Articles, advice, experts and other resources give users the option of complete anonymity if they are seeking resources but aren't ready to share their story with the world.

Addiction.com was originally planned to be an addiction treatment referral service. After realizing that the site could offer much more, co-founder John S. Shegerian, a successful entrepreneur and former addict himself expanded the site to include these additional features. To add even more in-depth assistance, addicted.com added an online "Aftercare" program, designed to continue giving support to addicts after their treatment has ended.

"Being able to offer something that helps others is an honor and a privilege," said Shegerian. "Better yet, Addicted.com provides the right tools and resources to enable the addicted community and their loved ones to proactively help themselves!"

This website gives addicts and concerned family and friends a 24-hour interactive resource for the help they need -- right from their own home.

Addicted.com provides addiction recovery resources and tools for addicts, family members and friends throughout the Internet community. The main goal of addicted.com is to maintain a well-known site for people to visit when they need advice, answers, assistance or just someone to talk with.
